RE: Burning Dump
Salisbury Township
Rt. 322

Dear Mr. Barkman:

It has come to the attention of this Department that an open burning dump is being operated by you in Salisbury Township along Rt 322.

We must advise you that this condition is a violation of Sections 7 (a) 9 (1) and 9 (3), Pennsylvania Solid Waste Management Act, Act 241, approved July 31, 1968 and amended by Act 187, January 12, 1970. A copy of Act 241 is enclosed with this letter.

Therefore, you are to cease the depositing or permitting the depositing of any solid waste or the burning of any solid waste on the above described premise, until you comply with the requirements of the Pennsylvania Solid Waste Management Act, Act 241, and the Rules and Regulations for Administering the Solid Waste Management Act.

All solid waste presently exposed on the site is to be covered with two feet of compacted earth within thirty (30) days and provisions made to limit access to the site by unauthorized persons or vehicles.
